

Pascal Martinolli

Librarian

pascal.martinolli @ hotmail.com

For students to be information literate, I am developing learning activities for the Libraries of the Université de Montréal.

I am currently working on several pedagogical projects
using different techniques from ludic role-playing games.

Experience

Information Literacy Librarian

Université de Montréal, 2008 – Present

In charge of teaching information literacy (IL) in the library of arts and social sciences

Teaching a credited course in IL for graduate students

Principal lecturer in IL for faculty, graduates and undergraduates

Economics Librarian

Department of Economics / School of Industrial relations, Université de Montréal, 2002 – 2008

Subject librarian in Economics, Industrial relations and Statistics

Built and developed digitized collections

Managed documentation center

Teaching and web design

Librarian

Centre de la Montagne and Vélo Québec, Montréal, 2002

Webmaster

Les Echos, Paris, 2000 – 2001

Library Assistant

Strategic Executive Office of EDF (Électricité de France), Paris, 1998 – 2000

Education

M.Sc. Information Science and Document Management

Institut national des techniques de la documentation,
Conservatoire National des Arts & Métiers, Paris, 2000

M.A. History

Université de Nice - Sophia Antipolis, Nice, 1998

Librarian skills

Teaching

University level courses – Course building – Teaching supervision in the libraries

Library Management

Supervisor for trainees and part-time working students – Reporting

Information Design

Writing skills – Translation Fr>En – Web ergonomics – Desktop publishing

Information Research

Subject indexing – Thesaurus building – Database building – Web and database research

Academic Research

Editor of the academic blog ZOtRPG. Information literacy activities using ludic RPG techniques.

Skills and Qualifications

Languages

French (native) – English (professional) – Spanish (good)

Computer Languages

HTML – XML – PHP – MySQL – LaTeX/BibTeX – Dot/GraphViz

Softwares

Zotero – EndNote – Dreamweaver – InDesign – Filemaker Pro – Contribute – MS Office (advanced) – LibreOffice (advanced) – Acrobat Suite – Camtasia.

Interests

Watercolor and drawing

Portraits – Still lifes – Landscapes – Comic strips

Writing

Poetry – Fantasy novel – Short stories – Translation French to English

Hiking

Every altitudes – Every temperatures – Every Culture

References

Excellent references available upon request

Major achievements

Academic

- Taught graduate-level credited course in Information literacy. 30 students. 18 hours.
- Facilitated workshops in Information literacy (document evaluation, basic IL skills, writing papers with LaTeX, etc).
- Designed and implemented online tutorials for EndNote and Zotero. With Contribute.
- Developed teaching aids. With InDesign and Publisher.
- Developed templates for Ph.D. thesis using LaTeX and BibTeX formats.
- Built digitized collections :
 - past exams : 2000+ items;
 - past syllabi : 1300+ items;
 - working papers : 600+ items;
 - M.Sc. and Ph.D. thesis : 1000+ items;

Administrative & Business

- Designed several websites: Department of Economics (U. Montreal), Online courses (U. Montreal), CIREQ, SCSE, LettresPro (Les Echos). With Dreamweaver and Contribute.
- Developed administrative tools for the Department of Economics. With html, javascript, PHP and MySQL.
- Developed the Bulletin of the Department of Economics. Desktop publishing of 8 issues with InDesign.
- Created and indexed 2 library catalogs for 2 green lobbying associations (Vélo Québec, Centre de la Montagne). 700+ items each. With Filemaker Pro.
- Developed a business intelligence database focusing on the main international utility companies. 1200 items. With Lotus Notes 4.6.
- Built a thesaurus in cognitive ergonomics. 250 terms.

Management Responsibilities

- Faculty of Arts and Sciences (U. Montreal). Information literacy department. Promoting and coordinating library services to teachers and students of 20 academic departments.
- Documentation center. 50 academics and 150 grad students per year. 10 000+ documents.
- Subject librarianship in Economics, Industrial relations and Statistics.
- Editor of ZotRPG

